NEW at Quiltfest and Special Displays

NEW: Boutique

Quilters are masterful with a sewing machine and love to make more than quilts. Enjoy shopping the special and unique products for sale in the boutique. You are sure to find something perfect for an upcoming holiday or season to decorate your home or table. Maybe you will delight in the perfect bag to meet your needs or a gift for someone special. Take a look and take home your new treasure. Note: NO products are for sale that detract from what the vendors offer, so be sure to shop their booths for more treasures.

NEW: Selfie Booth

Have some fun and share pictures of yourself from our new "selfie" booth. Oversized items, pre-set phrases, and more are available for you to play with. Be sure to use hashtags in your Facebook or Instagram posts so people know where you are and get inspired to attend, also. Special thanks to Julie Mainor, Linda McClelland and John Frus for the props.

Possible hashtags: #quiltfestjax2024, #jaxquiltfest2024, #sewyourheartout

Facebook: @quiltfestjax, Instagram: @jaxquiltfest

NEW: Puzzle Hunt

Collect your puzzle pieces from eight vendors by visiting their booths. When put together, you have your very own memento from Quiltfest, Sew Your Heart Out. A special shout out goes to Off The Wall Quilt coordinator, Julie Luoma. Bonus: Visit all 8 vendors and get their signatures for a chance to win a gift card. Visit these vendors: Off The Wall Quilt, Martelli, Miss D's Quilt Shop, Classic Creations, Sew Mini Things, Rainbows End, Cut Up & Sew, Tilted Quilters.

NEW: 3 Categories (well, 1 very new and 2 returnees)

Back by popular demand are two duet categories for judging: Large Duet and Intermediate Duet. These quilts often have two primary quilters who make the final quilt you see, and both will get ribbons if the quilt is deemed a prize winner.

Completely new this year is the Modern Quilt category. Modern quilts embody the principles of modern design, such as use of solids and bold colors, high contrast and graphic areas of color, minimalism, expansive negative space, maximalism, asymmetry, alternate and innovative grid layout, or improvisational piecing.

NEW at Quiltfest and Special Displays

NEW: Vendors to Welcome

Many new faces are ready to greet you at QuiltfestJax in the Vendor section. So please take time to explore your list of vendors and welcome the new ones even as you enjoy greeting and revisiting your “old” friends. They will surely appreciate your feedback and especially your purchases. New to QuiltfestJax vendors are identified in the Vendor directory in this program book.

NEW: Scissors Sharpening Service

Fred Peltz of 108 Sharp LLC will be providing an opportunity to have your scissors sharpened while you visit Quiltfest. Just drop off your scissors then go enjoy the show. You CAN bring them into the Prime Osborn.

Special Display: EGA—Embroiderers Guild of America

The EGA was formed to foster the art of needlework and associated arts. EGA provides a center used for education and information regarding the embroidery for all members. Membership is open to anyone from a beginner to a professional interested in embroidery. Many classes are available with nine separate disciplines in the master craftsman programs. The local chapter can be reached at duclayega@gmail.com. (Picture credit: a sample class offered—Sweet Bag Sewed of Silver and Gold with Melinda Sherbring)

Special Display: ASG—American Sewing Guild

ASG is made up of Chapters, Neighborhood Groups and Members at Large. Something for every level of sewing experience is offered both via in-person and virtual meetings, classes and events, both local and nationally. Local chapters host meetings, social events, fashion shows, online meetings and often host service projects for their community. Members can access free videos and files, enjoy discounts and special offers and attend the annual conference. Contact the local chapter at Jacksonville@asg.org.

Special Display: Quilts of Valor Quilts = Healing

The mission of the Quilts of Valor foundation is to cover service members and veterans touched by war with comforting and healing quilts. The foundation began in 2003. Founder, Catherine Roberts, whose son was deployed in Iraq, dreamed of a young man in utter despair until being wrapped in the comfort of a quilt. The quilts are high quality, specially labeled homemade quilts which are awarded to service members. To date, this now national movement has comforted 394,774 soldiers.

NEW at Quiltfest and Special Displays

Special Display: Community Hospice and Palliative Care

Since 1979 Community Hospice and Palliative Care has become a trusted leader in compassionate hospice care and palliative care for patients and families living throughout Northeast and North Central Florida. The experienced staff provides patients with specialized care, helping alleviate physical and emotional pain while addressing their spiritual and social needs. This year the silent auction at Quiltfest will benefit the Community Hospice PedsCare Bereavement Program.

Special Display: OLLI—Osher Lifelong Learning Institute:

OLLI at UNF is self-organized member volunteers working together to create and deliver educational, cultural, and social opportunities for lifelong learners aged 50 and better. Classes are offered for modest fees, and vary, depending on the volunteer teachers. Classes in the past have included beginning quilting or museum visits, as well as academic discussions about art and so much more.

Special Display: United Health Care

Taking care of ourselves starts with the basics, and United Health Care strives to be a good partner in your overall health.

NEW: Community Partnerships with Jacksonville International Airport and Cummer Museum of Art & Gardens

This year Quiltfest had some very special outreach opportunities. We had displays upstairs and downstairs at the Jacksonville International Airport. Quilters throughout the region shared some of their best work to be on exhibit. It was part of the airport initiative of art in public places. Special thanks to Jill Smith for coordinating Quiltfest participants at our seven sister guilds.

Quiltfest sister guilds have worked with the Cummer Museum of Art & Gardens during their “Fabric of the Nation” Quilt show from the MFA. Members have sold quilts, served as docents, provided classes and advised the staff about many aspects of quilting. Look for the coupon to save $5 when you visit the last weeks of the show. It ends Sept. 29.
